Established in 1951, IOM is the leading inter-governmental organization in the field of migration and works closely with governmental, intergovernmental and non-governmental partners. IOM is dedicated to promoting humane and orderly migration for the benefit of all. It does so by providing services and advice to governments and

IOM is committed to a diverse and inclusive environment. External and internal candidates are eligible to apply for this vacancy. For the purpose of the vacancy, internal candidates are considered as first-tier candidates.

IOM in South Sudan has a broad range of programming centered around three broad areas: Humanitarian Coordination and Support; Humanitarian response and Resilience; and Peacebuilding, Transition, and Development. Humanitarian Coordination and support includes leading/co-leading the Camp Coordination and Camp Management (CCCM) and Shelter and Non-Food Items (NFI) Clusters, Displacement Tracking Matrix (DTM), Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) and management of WASH and Shelter and NFI Core-pipelines, Humanitarian Hubs and common transport services. Humanitarian response and Resilience includes CCCM, WASH, Shelter & NFI, Health, Protection, Gender equality and inclusion, Mental health and Psychosocial support and the Management of a Rapid Response Fund. Under Peacebuilding, Transition and Development, IOM South Sudan implements programming on Housing, Land and Property Page issues, Transition and Recovery, Transhumance conflict prevention, Community-based violence reduction, Community development and Migration Management.

Under the direct supervision of the Conflict Analyst and in close collaboration with the Transition and Recovery Unit (TRU) Coordinator and the Displacement Tracking Matrix (DTM) team the successful candidate will guide and support field teams working on peacebuilding, stabilization, recovery and resilience, with a strong focus on housing, land and property (HLP)-related conflict. In this capacity, the incumbent will be primarily responsible for:

1. Support the mainstreaming of conflict sensitivity throughout the project life cycle for IOM-South Sudan projects in different locations, including Juba, Wau, Bentiu, Yei, Lainya, Morobo, Kajo Keji under PBF funded and RSRTF funded projects and elsewhere as required.
2. Provide technical support and guidance to field staff on conflict sensitivity monitoring, including risk identification and risk mitigation.
3. Provide technical support and operational guidance to field staff on the roll out of conflict-sensitivity tools and guidance for project interventions.
4. Identify existing conflicts at the local, sub-national and national levels, their types, their main causes and the factors that could help mitigate within projects and promote social cohesion, with a strong focus on HLP-related conflicts.
5. Participate in continual analysis pertaining to the conflict-related impacts of sub-project interventions, producing narrative reports on prevailing conflict dynamics and possible mitigation measures for interventions.
6. Review, compile and consolidate project documents pertaining to conflict, gender and protection with a view towards better adapting project interventions.
7. Support operational staff in field locations, as well as other IOM staff to technically monitor and evaluate conflict sensitivity and do no harm standards.
8. Ensure timely feedback and reporting by providing weekly updates and reports to the Conflict Analyst and TRU Coordinator.
9. Conduct field monitoring visits and evaluations in coordination with other relevant IOM technical staff, including gender and protection.
10. Perform other duties as assigned.
